PEOPLE'S MISSION.

The Sunday aight services at Bijou Theater will continue as long as they can be maintained at the high leve! prevailing heretofore. There is no scheme behind the services—no money making or building-securing enterprise. The meetings are for the sole purpose of helping men and women out of sleful lives into useful Christian lives. The meetings are free from cant and cranks have no show. The music is of a high order and the theme is the same in all the meetings—"the old-time religion." Tomorrow night the address will be given by Merrill E. Gaiek, LL. D., former president of Amherst and Rutgers College, subject, "What a Carpenter Said About Work." Doors open at 7. Song service and sacred concert from 7:15 to 8. No tickets required. 1t SECULAR LEAGUE—LECTURE BY DR. LOUIS R. Klemm, "Obstinacy as Vice and Virtue." Discussion, 3 p.m. 516 9th st. 1t

Forecast till 8 p.m. Sunday: For the District of Columbia and Maryland, rain and colder tonight. Sunday, clearing and much colder, with cold wave; brisk southerly shifting to northwesterly winds. For Virginia, rain and colder tonight. Sunday clearing and much colder, with a cold wave; brisk to high southerly winds on the coast, becoming westerly Sunday.

Weather conditions and general forecast: One of the severest storms of recent years is prevailing just west of and paralleling the Appalachians. The rain area extends well in front into the lower lake region and New England and trails in the rear to eastern Texas. West of the storm an area of intense cold for the season prevails, with snow from the upper lake region southward to western Tennessee. The tempera-ture at Chicago is 6 degrees below zero, a fall of 54 degrees during the last twenty-four hours. In St. Louis the thermometer with indications of going lower during the day. The line of zero temperature extends from northern Illinois and Michigan southwestward into Oklahoma. The temperature has continued to rise in the Atlantic coast districts, the rise in some regions being as much as 30 degrees. West of the and cold with temperatures ranging from zero to 30 degrees below. Rain, turning into snow, is indicated for the middle Atlantic states and the mountain districts of the south Atlantic states. It will clear in the last-named region Sunday morning and in the middle gulf states tonight. Snow will probably continue in the upper Ohio valley and the lower lake region tonight and Sunday.
